

AN 51 Natural Resources I

- Provides an introduction to environmental studies.
- Learn about renewable and non-renewable natural resources, history of the environment, water and air quality, waste management, land use regulations, soils, meteorology, fisheries, forestry, and wildlife habitat.
- Hunter safety certification card awarded upon completion.

NATURAL RESOURCES

Students can choose either AN52 or AN53 after completing AN51!

AN 52 Natural Resources II

- Examine best management practices and sampling techniques to support natural resource conservation.
- Develop forestry identification and management skills.
- Discover conservation techniques to enhance forestry and wildlife habitats and explore a variety of natural resources recreational opportunities.
- Gain the knowledge and skills for careers in the Natural Resources pathway.

If interested talk to your school counselor or Ag teacher!

AN 53 Natural Resources II - Forestry

- Explore forest cultivation, conservation and management, and timber harvesting and processing to prepare for a career in the forestry industry.
- Implement skills in tree identification and timber measurement.
- Develop forestry knowledge and skills to attain an industry recognized credential.

Forest Worker Credential awarded upon completion of AN53!